

OLD TAMMANY STANDS FIRM.

DELEGATES ALL PLEDGED TO BRYAN'S SUPPORT.

CROKER INDORSES SHEEHAN.

Says He Was Entirely Right in Getting the Committee to Stand by Bryan.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—"You well know I am out of politics, but I may be pardoned for expressing the personal opinion that Mr. Sheehan was entirely right in using his influence to secure the endorsement of Bryan and Sewall by the Tammany Executive Committee. It was the only thing for a Democrat to do, and Mr. Sheehan should be commended for pursuing it at a crisis like this a purely Democratic course. Were I occupying Mr. Sheehan's position I should have done just as he has done."

This, in substance, is what Richard Croker has written to a friend in this city of the action of the Tammany Hall Executive Committee in endorsing the Democratic ticket.

The letter came within the last two days. The quoted phrases, or their equivalent, appear in a letter sent by Mr. Croker to a personal friend in this city, and Mr. Sheehan was immediately acquainted with the fact.

There is the possibility of Mr. Croker's returning. Nothing definite has been heard from him, but his friends are daily becoming more convinced that he will be in New York in time to express his "personal" opinion of the contest.

Mr. Sheehan was disinclined to discuss the subject of Mr. Croker's letter when sent yesterday. He admitted, however, that a letter had been received, although he said he was not the recipient.

You can say for Mr. Sheehan, "that Tammany will send to the Buffalo State Convention delegates of the kind whom will be pledged to Bryan's support."

To my mind there is no doubt that New York City will give the largest majority for Bryan that it has ever given a Democratic ticket. It is true that there is but little money for campaign purposes. The plain people win elections, and they will be for Bryan.

Tammany has not been inactive, and its friends of the opposition would probably be surprised to see the earnestness, the enthusiasm, the loyalty displayed for the national ticket.

Mr. Sheehan sent a message to Mr. Bryan yesterday urging him to speak in Madison Square Garden during the second week in October. Mr. Bryan replied that he would be subject to the orders of Chairman Jones. It is thought that arrangements will be made for a monster gathering.

"WICKED WILLIE'S" TALK.

Breckinridge Says the Whole Goldbug Object Is to Beat Bryan.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 21.—The gold-standard Democratic Convention is over. The main feature of it was the speech of Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, the principal feature of his speech was the open declaration that the whole movement meant the desire to beat Bryan. Here is what he said:

"This is above all personalities, dear as they are to me, and dearer to me than to any man living—above all traditions of party affiliation, above all second-hand notions as to me personally and to the generations of my beloved family behind me. I am here to say to you, and to the generations of my beloved family behind me, that the duty of to-day is for the Democratic party to stand by Bryan, and to stand by him to the end of the world."

The following delegates-at-large to the Indianapolis Convention were chosen: Ex-Gov. S. B. Buckner, ex-Gov. J. C. Breckinridge and William F. Browder. The platform, which was unanimously adopted, was a severe arraignment of the Chicago platform, which was declared to be "revolutionary and un-American."

The candidates were announced. Mr. Bryan as a Populist and Mr. Sewall as a substandard silver man and a high protectionist. It contains a strong presentation of the principles, to enunciate which the gathering was called, the maintenance of an honest and stable currency on the Democratic platform, revenue only, low taxation and economical expenditure; civil service reform; the duty of the Government to protect the citizen and his property from lawlessness; an independent and unimpaired judiciary; the condemnation of special privilege, sumptuary legislation; governmental favoritism, bounties and other forms of favoritism, and the maintenance of the national Democratic Administration.

The nomination of ex-Gov. S. B. Buckner for Vice-President by the Indianapolis Convention. Free speeches by ex-Gov. Buckner and others the convention adjourned.

PREACHER REBUKED.

Prof. Reid's Cutting Letter to McKinley's Pulpit Speaker.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.
BOZEMAN, Mont., Aug. 21.—President James Reid of the Montana College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, who has returned from an extended trip East, says he was surprised to find so general a sentiment favorable to silver in the Eastern States.

President Reid is a strong Republican and a preacher. He has written Mr. McKinley a long letter, an open letter, praising his recent sermon, closing it thus:

"Your utterance of the words 'I am unworthy of you' and 'I stand as if you were courting a notorious woman' was exceedingly unpleasant and unpalatable to men of less egoism."

LADIES OF THE CHILDREN'S HOME CALL A MEETING.

HOME CALL A MEETING.

DIDN'T LIKE THE EXPOSURE.

Blame the Matron for Letting the Public Know That the Children Were in Danger of Starving.

Some of the ladies of the St. Louis Auxiliary Board of the Children's Home Society of Missouri have taken it upon themselves to inform Mrs. L. L. Abrams, matron of the Children's Home, that she did a most inexcusable act in applying to the Post-Dispatch for aid for the starving little ones in her care.

They have further intimated to her that as a penalty for her exposure of the true state of affairs in an institution where the children of unfortunate parents are taken, presumably for the betterment of their condition.

These same members of the Auxiliary Board have also taken it upon themselves, without the consent of the board, to reappoint as a solicitor Mrs. Belle Paris, whom Superintendent Tension, by order of the board, discharged some time ago. He did this charged her with visiting the children in the home, and then, as a solicitor for the White Cross Home, who was discharged from her position for gambling with money contributed for the sake of charity.

There were other reasons alleged by the board, but they were not set out at that time to make them public.

Consequently, the board, following the articles in the Post-Dispatch, a special meeting of the Auxiliary Board had been called for the purpose of discussing the dismissal of Mrs. Abrams and the reinstatement of Mrs. Paris as to be.

Tension is assured for the meeting. Not only the members of the board, but the public, and the children, are to be present. It is not to be held in secret, but in public.

AN ALLEGED CONTRACT AS TO GOV. STONE'S SALARY.

SO ABSURD THAT IT'S FUNNY.

State Treasurer Seibert Punctures a Canard Circulated by Republicans and Feeble Intellect.

The Republicans of Missouri are beginning their campaign of misrepresentation and abuse rather early even for them. Up in Atchison County they are distributing circulars purporting to show a contract between Governor William J. Stone and the State of Missouri whereby the governor stipulates that his salary shall be paid in gold.

The slow-witted Republicans who are passing the circular around, having no knowledge of the State constitution, which provides how the Governor shall be paid, are using this alleged contract as an argument against silver.

Friday morning State Auditor Seibert, who is at Democratic State headquarters, received a letter from Thomas Stone of Warsaw, asking for confirmation or denial of the contract story.

In reply, Mr. Seibert sent this letter: "Treasury Department of Missouri, office of State Auditor, CITY OF JEFFERSON, Aug. 20, 1898. "Mr. Thomas Stone, Warsaw, Mo.: "Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of your letter of the 18th inst., stating that you have information that the Republicans of Missouri are circulating a circular purporting to show a contract between Governor William J. "I am sorry to say that it is a fraud, a denial of the truth. The Governor's salary is paid in gold, and the State of Missouri is not bound to pay it in gold. The Governor's salary is paid in gold, and the State of Missouri is not bound to pay it in gold."

ENTRIB THE TOURNAMENT.

A SPECTACULAR WAY OF CRACK RACE CYCLISTS.

EVENTS WILL BE PACED.

Fast Work May Be Looked For in List of the Entries—Sporting News.

Although the Associated cycling club did not succeed in persuading Cooper to come to St. Louis, they managed to capture a very fair array of cycling talent for the Diamond tournament.

Not since 1894, when all the cracks came to St. Louis on the grand circuit, has so fine an entry list been published for a St. Louis tournament.

The professional class is much stronger than it was expected to be. E. E. Anderson, of locomotive fame, went on and still hunt during the week and secured the entire of numerous professionals from Chicago, including such famous circuit chasers as Willie De Cardy, Fred Kenyon and Frank Wink, the "Ottawa Flyer."

In addition to these celebrities, St. Louis will furnish a very fine entry list of professional talents in the five classes of Anderson and Stadler. Willie Coburn is the best man entered in any class. He ranks with Bald, Sanger and Cooper. Two years ago he was a very mediocre amateur.

De Cardy is another man of the first class. He has been on the circuit and made his wins when in the best of form. Jack and Lou are men of great ability and reputation. They will make it interesting for any of them.

The supply of amateur talent is the finest that ever started in a race meet. Joe Howard, fresh from his Louisville honors; Fred Hattersley, the State champion; C. E. Graham, winner of the Forest Park road race; Bert Harding, Chas. Laing, Charlie McCarthy, D. A. Daugherty, J. C. Weidner, George Tivy and a host of others.

Perfect arrangements have been made for the meet, and as the sport should be of the first-class order, a great day is looked for. All races will be paced, and the public will see spirited racing. The entries:

One-mile handicap, professional—W. Coburn, scratch; E. E. Anderson, 25 yards; C. E. Graham, 50 yards; C. E. Miller, 75 yards; W. E. Kenyon, 100 yards; J. Coburn, 125 yards; W. E. De Cardy, 150 yards; L. Coburn, 175 yards; J. Coburn, 200 yards.

The attitude of the Cycle Board of Trade towards the A. C. C. was then taken up. Since the action of the Board of Trade on Tuesday night several members of that organization have freely asserted that they were going to take the race meets out of the hands of the A. C. C.

This caused the latter organization some trouble. The committee, consisting of Messrs. Sanders and Towse, was appointed to wait upon the Cycle Board of Trade at their next meeting and ascertain the feeling of the board in regard to the matter.

A. L. Jordan and O. G. Bantley appeared before the association as a committee from the board of Trade to ascertain the feeling of the association in regard to the matter. The board of Trade proposed to give on every Saturday after Sept. 5.

GIDEON BACKS HIM

If Robert Resigns the Entire Racing Board Will Follow Suit.

Chairman Gideon of the Racing Board has announced that if Mr. Robert, the local member, resigns his position on the board at the demand of the Cycle Board of Trade, the entire Racing Board will place their resignations in the hands of President Eliot.

Robert's trouble, they say, is only what every member of the board, who has been in the chair for several years, has experienced. Mr. Gideon himself has had troubles with the manufacturers.

They say that Mr. Robert will not pay any attention to the Board of Trade's demand for his resignation, and will not pay his dues in the matter and will not reply to their communication.

Cycling Notes.

Jack Coburn rode a half in 58 yesterday. The same track that carried Mrs. Trunell was made up of Jim Albright, Luten, Hammond and Linnewith.

The promoters of the Diamond Tournament should see to it that all races to be run on the track can be seen by the public on slow time in any of the events.

"I hear a whole lot about our local amateur riders," said a cycle crank yesterday. "Then I see them do it in a race. What do I see? I see the same men as I see in a race, near every time."

get beaten in 2:48. That is not right. Face every body on the track can beat him. That may be so, but watch that "terrible sprint" the stretch head to town. Bert Harding appears to be in fine condition. He may give some of the swell amateurs a run for their money tomorrow.

Home Canfield is going to try for the State mile open record of 2:30 tomorrow. He will be paced by his Mecca quad.

Base Ball Notes.

Two out of three from the Baltimore team on their own ground. The Orioles are practically undefeated in the Philadelphia series. Here in July Delehanty said that Baltimore had 32 games to play at home, and that they would win 20 of them. He was right. Baltimore has taken two. Donohue pitched a great game yesterday. He has only won about four games this season, but he should have won at least 10, as he always pitched well.

Billy Hart was wild, and said the Browns would win 20 of 25. He was right. St. Louis did not win three straight from the Orioles.

The Browns play in Baltimore again today. If Down is wise he will let Kinsinger pitch. He has pitched well. It would be a mistake to let him pitch. He is not playing his game just now.

HOW HE WAS HYPNOTIZED.

DR. MORGNER TALKS OF MRS. TRUNELL'S MYSTIC POWER.

SHE MADE HIM FEEL GOOD.

A Family Discussion of the Wiles and Arts of a Shrewd Business Woman.

As soon as a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Stella Trunell was issued, the Kansas City police were instructed by wire to proceed to 902 Wyandotte street and arrest the woman who hypnotized Dr. Morgner into trading St. Louis property for mine she didn't own.

Dr. Morgner knew Mrs. Trunell was in Kansas City, because she called upon him directly after her arrival there Wednesday morning.

She tried again to induce him to accept "valuable" mining property in lieu of the deeds to the flats on Chouteau avenue. The same train that carried Mrs. Trunell to Kansas City brought Dr. Morgner a letter from his wife, warning him to have no dealings with the woman.

The letter reached Dr. Morgner first, and he gave Mrs. Trunell the marble heart. Then he took the first train car for St. Louis in order to swear out the warrant against the woman who had hypnotized him.

After securing the warrant Dr. Morgner returned with Lawyer John O. Marshall to the latter's office in the Laclede building. Mrs. Morgner was awaiting their appearance.

Mrs. Morgner is a pretty shrewd woman herself. She rescued her husband from the clutches of the woman she considered a rival by as pretty a piece of detective work as any of Chief Desmond's men ever performed.

Mrs. Morgner's wits were sharpened by the suspicion that Mrs. Trunell's hypnotic powers were being used on the doctor for her purposes than to amuse him out of his flat.

At one time she thought Dr. Morgner and Mrs. Trunell had come to Chicago together. Instead, Mrs. Trunell had come to Chicago and Dr. Morgner to St. Charles, Mo., where he has relatives, in order to recover from the strain he experienced while under Mrs. Trunell's hypnotic spell.

Another time Mrs. Morgner thought a hasty trip taken to Joplin, Mo., by the doctor was very suspicious, because his business with Mrs. Trunell might have been transacted by mail at least once.

She found this suspicion groundless also. So when Mrs. Morgner started to tell the reporter how she had overwatched the wily widow, she paused to state that Mrs. Trunell's assertion that there was to be a divorce, was a downright falsehood.

"If it hadn't been for me," said Mrs. Morgner, "my never would have caught up with that woman. Light but she is with her. She doesn't know yet how we discovered her."

After she came to St. Louis, we found she was here, but we could not locate her. In a few days, though, I saw an advertisement in a paper, stating that a wealthy widow wanted the services of a man with a manager of her property.

The same paper was an "ad" stating that a wealthy widow desired the acquaintance of a man of means with a view to matrimony. Also, one for a "few more young men to work on a coffee plantation in Mexico."

I suspected that Mrs. Trunell was the author of these advertisements, and had the manager of her property, who was very suspicious, and gave the woman's address as 84 Chestnut street and the Moser Hotel.

"Before going to the Moser Hotel I went to 84 Chestnut street without making myself known. I intended to be looking for an address in the directory, but had my eye on a woman in the office who answered Mrs. Trunell's descriptions. I wanted to see what kind of a looking woman Mrs. Trunell was so I could recognize her when I saw her."

"I could get no satisfaction out of her, but I wired her address to the doctor. 'After that it was an easy matter to keep up with her. In fact, when I learned Tuesday that she was to leave town that night I went to Union Station with her and watched to see whether she really went or not. She got on a train for Kansas City and I took care that the same train carried a letter from me to the doctor.'

"That same afternoon she told me that she positively would not give back those deeds and that I could have her locked up whenever I wanted to."

"The woman must have made money in St. Louis. Mr. Haggerty wrote me from Joplin that just before Mrs. Trunell left for St. Louis she tried to pawn her brooch to get money for her railroad fare."

Mrs. Morgner started to say something further, when Lawyer Marshall entered with a quiff and a quiet smile, wearing a stovepipe hat and a dark suit of clothes, with a sack coat.

The little man walked jerkily up to Mrs. Morgner and then turning sharply around, with a sudden movement, demanded: "Are you a reporter?"

As they ran Anderson Vaughan was shot to death and four others were caught, stripped and cruelly beaten. The object of the outrage was to drive the negroes away from their work at cotton picking in order that the White Cappers might get it.

on account of poor potato and other vegetable crops, American and Canada will be called upon to supply the deficit. The deficit is estimated at 100,000 bushels. They have not that much to show.

The latest Manitoba weekly weather report shows conditions have been favorable for grain crops.
Late crops generally improved and if they ripen early and free from frost damage, the yield will be better than the earlier estimates. The becoming general this week.

Supplies of wheat meal already being running bare in certain sections. A bid of 41c made recently in St. Louis. The response that St. Louis prices were obtainable there on track. Another instance was an order received from Illinois mill for St.
Louis houses to ship two cars wheat daily from now on this fall.

The steamer Benton, which was up the Missouri River to Rochester, and which at this season of the year usually brings in several thousand sacks wheat, had 600 sacks wheat and 50 bundles empty casks as her load this morning.

The visible supply promises to show a fair decline in the 1,000,000 bushel reduction of one year ago. Minneapolis and Duluth are expected to show a decline by decrease this week.

Results of elevators this week are expected to be somewhat less than the 2,700,000 bushels of last August.

appliance into the elevator, the rate of insurance on that house has been reduced to
